

Taking it to the Next Level: Corporate Parents & Children in Care Councils

What can Corporate Parents do to support Children in care Councils? Messages from the Taking it to the Next Level events 2013-2014

- Be approachable. The people who make decisions need to be visible and available.
- Be realistic.
- Stick to your word.
- Make sure when something is promised it happens.
- Employ good staff.
- Turn up to meetings.
- Show children in care that they matter.
- Be emotionally supportive.
- Make positive things happen by attending, listening, acting and championing our issues.
- Support young people with their aspirations.
- Work together with children in care councils.
